SARAH NETBURN, United States Magistrate Judge:

On August 12, 2013, the parties appeared for an Initial Pretrial Conference. After review of the pleadings and consultation with the parties, the following scheduling order is entered pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure:

Pleadings and Parties. The parties may amend the pleadings or join additional parties until September 12, 2013.

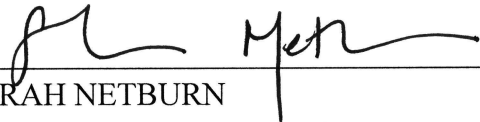

Discovery. All discovery shall be completed by December 12, 2013.

Status Letter. A joint letter informing the Court about the status of discovery shall be sent to chambers by September 12, 2013. Such letter shall be submitted in accordance with the Court's Individual Practices. The letter should address the status of conditional class certification. If this issue is contested, the letter should contain a proposed briefing schedule for a motion for conditional class certification. If this issue is uncontested, the letter should contain a proposed schedule for the approval of class notice. In addition, the letter should indicate whether the parties wish to schedule a settlement conference and, if so, include proposed dates on at least two consecutive weeks. The parties are, however, encouraged to contact the Court earlier if they believe a settlement conference sooner would be productive.

Summary Judgment Motion. No party may make a motion for summary judgment until the close of discovery. Any party that wishes to file a motion for summary judgment must file a pre-motion letter with the Hon. J. Paul Oetken by January 6, 2014.

SO ORDERED.
